

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

WOMEN'S ENERGY NETWORK ELECTS 2009 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

HOUSTON (Oct. 30, 2008) – At its annual meeting on Oct. 15, the Women's Energy Network of Houston (WEN) announced its newly elected 2009 board of directors. The new members of the 2009 WEN board are as follows:

- President – Kimberly Randolph, Project Manager, BP Alternative Energy
- Vice President – Jana Grauberger, Shareholder, Liskow & Lewis
- Secretary – Kimberly Wilson, Managing Consultant, Maxwell Drummond International
- Treasurer – Gwen Weddington, Business Development Manager, Praxair Inc.
- Communications Director – Jeannie Gardner, Global Process Lead, Shell Oil Products
- Membership Director – Cynthia Roney, Manager of Regulatory Affairs, Enbridge U.S. Inc.
- Public Relations Director – Andrea Dahlke, Vice-President, 20K Group, LLC
- Downtown Program Director – Joan Eischen, Managing Director, Logica
- Energy Corridor Program Director – Marlette Dumas, Consulting Project Manager, Upstream and Midstream Operations
- Northside Program Director – Deborah Hubbs, Senior Landman, Anadarko
- Special Events and Networking Director (One-Year Term) – Jessica Landis, Consulting Risk Strategist, Oil Gas & Power Industries
- Special Events and Networking Director (Two-Year Term) – Lori McDowell, Pipeline Business Manager, Praxair
- Director at Large – Karyl Lawson, Head of the Energy Practice, Phillips & Reiter PLLC
- Immediate Past President – Elizabeth Matthews, Senior Counsel, Chevron Services Company

ABOUT WEN

Women's Energy Network is a non-profit association of women professionals in the energy industry providing networking and community outreach opportunities and fosters career and leadership development. Founded in 1994, the organization has more than 500 members in the Houston area. To find out more, please visit the WEN website at www.wenhouston.org.

Media Contact:
20K Group | Andrea Dahlke | 713.224.1877, ext. 301

- end -